Sir,

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with the letter from the Government of India in the Home Department No. 286/36-Judicial, dated the 30th March 1939, and to state that the Crown Representative in India has under consideration the question of making arrangements between Burma on the one hand and specified Indian States and State areas under his administrative control on the other for the reciprocal execution of decrees. Such reciprocity existed till the 1st April 1937 when the then existing Province of Burma ceased to be a part of British India, and is still in existence between British India and certain Indian States and State areas administered by the Crown Representative vide notifications by the Government of India in the late Foreign and Political Department Nos. 321-I., 322-I., and 323-I., dated the 15th May 1929. For the reasons stated in paragraph 2 of your letter No. 203-W.37(1074), dated the 1st November 1937, summonses will be served by post. Arrangements are, however, desired for the execution on a reciprocal basis of civil decrees in future between the High Court of Judicature at Rangoon and all District Courts in British Burma and the "superior Courts" of those Indian States whose judicial system approximates in efficiency to that in British India, and the corresponding/- corresponding Courts in State areas administered by the Crown Representative. The definition of "superior courts" should it is suggested be similar to that which has been used in connection with the courts in British India. I am to enquire whether the Government of Burma accept the proposal in principle, in which case, detailed arrangements will be worked out and communicated for their consideration.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Sir,

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with your letter to the Government of India in the Home Department No. 2739, dated the 4th May 1939, and to state that the Crown Representative in India has under consideration the question of making arrangements between Aden on the one hand and specified Indian States and State areas under his administrative control on the other for the reciprocal execution of decrees and service of summons. Such reciprocity existed till the 1st April 1937 when the then existing Chief Commissioner's Province of Aden ceased to be a part of British India, and is still in existence between British India and certain Indian States and State areas administered by the Crown Representative, vide notifications by the Government of India in the late Foreign and Political Department Nos. 321-I, 322-I and 323-I, dated the 15th May 1929. Though the reciprocal service of civil processes, summonses etc., is of greater immediate importance to the Indian States, arrangements are also desired for the execution on a reciprocal basis of civil decrees between the Supreme Court of the Colony of Aden and the "superior courts" of those Indian States whose judicial system approximates in efficiency to that in British India, and the corresponding Courts in State areas

New Delhi the 16th October 1939.

Subject:- Reciprocity between India and Burma in the matter of execution of decrees under the Civil Procedure Code, 1908.

Sir,

With reference to para. 2 of your letter No.410 W 37 Pt.II (1770), dated the 21st September 1939, on the subject noted above, I am directed to say that there has been no change in the designation of the courts mentioned in clause (a) of the notification of the Government of Burma,No.141, dated the 7th March 1939, and that no other court has been declared to be a High Court for the purposes of the Government of India Act,1935. Any judgments passed by these Courts or the District Courts mentioned in clause (b) of that notification will bear the seals of the Courts and there should be no difficulty for the Courts in Burma to find out whether the judgments which they are required to enforce are those of superior courts in British India or not. As regards the courts mentioned in clause (c) of that notification, it has not been found possible to maintain a list in detail. It will be most difficult to keep such a list up-to-date in view of the large number of courts in British India falling within this description. It is to surmount these difficulties that the condition mentioned in clause (c),namely, that the judgment of such Courts sought to be filed under section 44A of the Code of Civil Procedure, should be sealed with a seal showing that the jurisdiction of the Court is subject to no pecuniary limit, was imposed. The Provincial Governments were .....

were accordingly requested to take steps to supply such Courts with a seal bearing the inscription "Court of unlimited pecuniary jurisdiction". The Government of India hope that in view of the above explanation the Courts in Burma will have no difficulty in finding out whether a particular court is a superior court or not.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

A Khaleli

Under Secretary to the Government of India.
